

A Purposeful Life

Safety Is No Accident-

Teaching Safe Actions at Home and In The Community

As children grow, we need to frequently teach them ways to be safe at home, online and in the community. Join us to learn how and when to begin to teaching these important skills.

We provide the following at no cost:

- Dinner
- Childcare (ages 2 & up)
- Youth training (ages 11 & up)
- Sibling support session (ages 7 & up)

The youth training combines activities that mirror the main session topic. The activities are adapted to their needs and focus on self-advocacy and self-discovery. The sibling support group is an opportunity for siblings to connect and offers a space for them to share their experiences. For accessibility or transportation requests, contact Pat Morse at BVCIL (979-776-5505.) All requests must be made one week in advance. For general inquiries, contact Aimee Ortiz-Day at 979-862-2913.
